

Certification completed on January 25, 2019

To Security Film Client:

The purpose of this letter is to confirm that AAA Glass Tint is authorized to promote and sell Armorcoat® Safety & Security Film Products as an Armorcoat Certified Partner.

Individuals from the company named above have been formally trained and certified by Saint-Gobain Solar Gard on the technical capabilities, risk assessment and installation of Armorcoat Safety & Security Films for the purposes of intrusion resistance, blast mitigation, glass retention and safety glazing applications.

This Armorcoat Certified Partner has demonstrated the ability to properly assess and provide guidance on the application of safety & security films ranging from 4 to 14 mil in thickness and the attachment systems that may be required.

AAA Glass Tint has successfully completed 500+ security film projects for schools, government, and private companies since being certified.

Sincerely,
